

Utah Baseball League Is Organized With Four Teams; Tobin Is Elected President

JOHN F. TOBIN IS RE-ELECTED

Popular Former Football Coach Will Pilot Utah Baseball League for 1910.

MAYOR PHIL BENTZ OF MURRAY VICE-PRESIDENT

Ogden, Salt Lake, Murray and Occidentals Will Play for Championship.

Officers for the Utah State Baseball league were elected Thursday night at a meeting of the representatives of the Ogden, Salt Lake, Murray and Occidental baseball teams in the Judge building. John F. Tobin was re-elected president of the league; Mayor Phil Bentz of Murray, vice president; W. E. Sanderson of Ogden, secretary; Rodney T. Badger, treasurer.

J. Frank Gilmir represented the Ogden team, C. W. Miller the Murray team and Harry Good and John F. Tobin the Salt Lake team.

President Tobin announced that Salt Lake would be ready with its forfeit money before the close of the week, and the teams agreed to post $1000 each for a sinking fund and guarantee to play out the season of 1910. The teams which will be represented in the Utah league are Salt Lake, Occidental, Murray and Ogden. Each team agrees to abide by a limited salary list and efforts will be made to secure the best material for the money there is in the country.

It was decided to open the baseball season May 29. Gilmir, Good and Miller were appointed a committee of three to draft a schedule of games and to report at the league meeting next Friday night. Manager Good will take the Salt Lake team to Ogden Sunday for a preliminary game with the Ogden team. Both Gilmir and Good are anxious to try out several of their men and believe this will be the best way to get around it.

Murray and the Occidentals will play Saturday and Sunday on the Walker field and as both teams are new in pretty good shape the fans will be given a rare treat.

President Tobin announced that the Salt Lake team would not raise off an automobile to raise money for the team, he said that after paying for the auto very little would be left and there was too much work attached to the auto for the little money that could be made.

A partial list of the contributors to the baseball fund was announced Thursday night as follows: Mr. Kirby, John Critchlow, Bob Nicol, Frank Gawan, A. H. Crabbe, W. J. Halloran, Western Am. & Sporting Goods company, Salt Lake Hardware company, W. P. Lake, Pembroke stationery, Humphries Real Estate company, George Morcom, Harry Shipman, Dan Owen, W. F. Oehler, A. R. Shimmis, Callaway Hook and Francis.
